As someone who has owned a business since I was 14 years old my mission has always been to make the most money as efficiently as possible. I am detailed oriented and a rule follower – exactly why I have been successful. As a kid I dressed up like a clown for neighborhood birthday parties. It took me a couple of weeks to find out if I got my friends to dress up as well I could do 3 or 4 parties on a Saturday instead of one.

After a ten year career in banking – including a heavy lending background. I started a manufacturing business in not only a brand new industry but sold every customer from number one to setting up our systems to continue for over 38 years.

I started buying real estate at 25 years old and finally decided it was time to get my own license when my husband and I started doing flips and holds back in the early 2000's. When we relocated to North Carolina I decided to try my hand at client work and brought my customer service and sales skills along with me. That led me to South Carolina and the vacation rental market which has been my niche for years now.

While we all love the thrill of the deal – it has to be done right and promptly. Your reputation is one of the most important assets in this industry. I can run your back office professionally and without issues so you can sell.

Call me and let's chat and see if we are on the same page. I'd love to work with you.
