

Mary Miller

SUMMARY

Versatile and experienced real estate and photography professional with over a decade of experience capturing meaningful moments through professional wedding photography and building trusted client relationships through real estate. Owner and professional photographer of Mari Miller Photography since 2013, specializing in weddings and personalized photography experiences. Florida-licensed Realtor® since June 2025 and Washington State Broker since October 2025. Currently affiliated with Dalton Wade Real Estate Group in Florida and Washington since August 2026. Known for professionalism, creativity, attention to detail, strong communication, and a client-focused approach.

EXPERIENCE

Owner | Professional Wedding Photographer

2013–Present

Mari Miller Photography

- Own and operate a professional wedding photography business specializing in capturing authentic and memorable wedding-day moments.
- Photograph weddings ranging from intimate elopements to large, full-scale celebrations.
- Work closely with couples to understand their vision, style, priorities, and expectations.
- Plan photography timelines and coordinate with couples, wedding parties, venues, planners, and other vendors.
- Provide a personalized client experience from initial consultation through final delivery of photographs.
- Manage all aspects of the photography business, including consultations, contracts, scheduling, marketing, photography, editing, and product delivery.
- Maintain a professional portfolio and business presence through social media and digital marketing.
- Demonstrate exceptional artistic judgment, composition, creativity, and attention to detail.
- Build lasting client relationships through professionalism, reliability, and exceptional customer service.

Florida Realtor®

June 2025–August 2026

Oakstrand Realty

Florida

- Provided professional residential real estate services to buyers and sellers.
- Developed strong client relationships through communication, responsiveness, and personalized service.
- Assisted clients with property searches, market information, negotiations, contracts, inspections, and closing.
- Coordinated with lenders, title companies, inspectors, other agents, and transaction professionals.
- Utilized photography, marketing, and digital communication skills to effectively promote properties.
- Managed multiple clients, schedules, deadlines, and transaction requirements with strong organization and attention to detail.

Florida Realtor® | Washington State Real Estate Broker

August 2026–Present

Dalton Wade Real Estate Group

Florida & Washington

- Provide professional real estate services to buyers and sellers in Florida and Washington.
- Assist clients with property searches, market information, negotiations, contracts, and transaction coordination.
- Build trusted client relationships through personalized service and consistent communication.
- Apply professional photography and visual marketing expertise to effectively showcase properties.
- Coordinate with clients, lenders, title companies, inspectors, agents, and other transaction professionals.
- Maintain accurate organization of transaction details, deadlines, documents, and client communications.
- Leverage photography, branding, marketing, and social media expertise to support property marketing and business development.

TECHNICAL SKILLS

Wedding & Event Photography

Residential Real Estate

Buyer & Seller Representation

Property Marketing
Client Relationship Management
Negotiation & Communication
Contract & Transaction Coordination
Professional Photography
Photo Editing
Social Media Marketing
Branding & Business Development
Customer Service
Scheduling & Time Management
Creative Problem Solving
Attention to Detail
Digital Marketing

CERTIFICATIONS

Florida Realtor® — Oakstrand Realty | June 2025–August 2026
Florida Realtor® — Dalton Wade Real Estate Group | August 2026–Present
Washington State Real Estate Broker — Dalton Wade Real Estate Group | August 2026–Present
Professional Wedding Photographer — Mari Miller Photography | 2013–Present

PROFESSIONAL STRENGTHS

Client-Focused: Builds genuine relationships and takes the time to understand each client's individual needs and goals.
Creative & Detail-Oriented: Combines professional photography and artistic vision with meticulous attention to detail.
Strong Communicator: Experienced working with clients, vendors, agents, and other professionals while maintaining a high level of professionalism.
Entrepreneurial: Successfully owns and operates a professional photography business while building a career in real estate.
Organized & Dependable: Experienced managing multiple clients, schedules, deadlines, contracts, and projects simultaneously.
Marketing-Minded: Offers the unique combination of professional photography, visual storytelling, branding, and real estate marketing expertise.

PROFESSIONAL VALUE

Mary Miller brings a distinctive combination of real estate expertise, professional photography, marketing ability, and exceptional client service. Her more than 13 years of experience in professional photography have developed strong skills in communication, organization, creativity, relationship building, and working effectively under pressure. Her professional photography background provides an additional advantage in real estate by allowing her to understand the importance of presentation, visual storytelling, branding, and compelling property marketing.

REFERENCES

Available upon request.